

2015 annual Joseph Cardinal Bernardin
Lecture in Moral, Ethical, and Religious Studies

Simone Campbell, SSS

Tuesday, Oct. 27, 2015

6:00 pm

Capstone Campus Room
on Barnwell between Pendleton and College

“BRIDGE THE DIVIDES, TRANSFORM POLITICS: A VIEW FROM THE BUS”

Sister Simone Campbell is a religious leader, attorney and poet with extensive experience in public policy and advocacy for systemic change. In Washington, she lobbies on issues of peace-building, immigration reform, healthcare and economic justice. Around the country, she is a noted speaker and educator on these public policy issues.

Rooted in a deep spirituality of compassion and service, Sister Simone gives voice to the hunger, isolation, and fear that so many people in America are feeling right now and shows us how we can create real transformation in our communities and in our own hearts through the contemplative life of prayer.

She has led three cross-country “Nuns on the Bus” trips, focused on economic justice, comprehensive immigration reform, and (most recently) voter turnout. Simone has often been featured in the national and international media, including appearances on 60 Minutes, The Colbert Report, and The Daily Show with Jon Stewart. She has received numerous awards, including a “Franklin D. Roosevelt Four Freedoms Award” and the “Defender of Democracy Award” from the international Parliamentarians for Global Action.

Department of Religious Studies

Capstone Campus Room

Enter through doors on left side of building for the Campus Room

